3. Chicano Student Programs – Subcommittee A
 - Chair Andrew Wong announced that Chicano Student Programs is unable to attend the meeting. Chair Andrew Wong stated that the Committee will review the department's presentation and budget call sheet independently to begin the deliberation process.
4. Subcommittee Recommendations Discussion
 - Chair Andrew Wong presented the Subcommittee Discussion Outline to the Committee and gave a quick overview of the expectations required within each Subcommittee.
 - Gene Brewer thanked Chair Andrew Wong for the outline and asked what the overall budget process will look like. Chair Andrew Wong replied that there will be four weeks dedicated to Subcommittee discussions to finalize the budget call by Week 7. This process will be followed by designating a new Chair, Vice Chair, and submitting a formal letter to the Chancellor regarding the Committee's final recommendations. Gene Brewer followed up that Subcommittees are not required to meet in person but must discuss and reach a consensus on how to utilize the budget. Chair Andrew Wong confirmed. Gene Brewer asked what is SSFAC's total budget this year. Chair Andrew Wong responded that the number has not been confirmed yet and will let the Committee know with the official numbers.
 - Ananya asked if the main purpose of Subcommittee discussions is to determine which funds will be allocated to each program. Chair Andrew Wong affirmed and stated Committees typically give three funding options: full funding, partial funding, and reduced funding.
 - Gene Brewer suggested updating the bylaws to make quorum become a priority. Chair Andrew Wong agreed and will look into it.
 - Shlok Garg asked about the difference between partial and reduced funding. Chair Andrew Wong explained that partial funding would allow the department to receive a portion of the funds whereas reduced funding would mean decreasing the amount of funding previously allocated to the department. Shlok Garg also asked if SSFAC was ever unable to fund a specific program or department. Chair Andrew Wong confirmed and stated that several programs were not funded to budget cuts last year. However, SSFAC has never declined funding to an entire department.

5. Bylaw Review and Updates Discussion

- Chair Andrew Wong informed the Committee that many UC's praised UCR's audit presentation at CSF and is requesting templates of the budget call sheets.
